Want to volunteer?

Become a befriender with Kilburn Good Neighbours

'My volunteer has become like one of my family, we have become good friends and her visits are one of the highlights of my week!'

Brighten someone's day with just an hour of your time. Our Kilburn Good Neighbours volunteers help out over 60s in their homes – either by offering befriending, practical assistance with gardening or small DIY tasks, picking up a magazine and a pint of milk or just popping by for a cup of tea and a chat.

Gain valuable experience and make new friends in your community. As a volunteer, you will receive:

- An induction
- Support and supervision
- Respect and trust
- Recognition
- Your expenses paid for
- A reference (after 3 months)

Join our friendly volunteer team. We match you up with a visit to fit your availability, either during the week, after work or at weekends. You only need to give up an hour a week to make a real difference to someone's life.

What you do will depend on your interests and availability – some volunteers visit the same person on a regular basis and others prefer to be 'on call' as and when needed.

'My experience volunteering with Kilburn Good Neighbours was invaluable when I applied for a job as an outreach worker in the community.'
